

BD Named by TIME as one of the World's Best Companies

FRANKLIN LAKES, N.J. (September 12, 2024) – BD (Becton, Dickinson and Company) (NYSE: BDX), a leading global medical technology company, today announced that it has been named to TIME's 2024 list of the World's Best Companies that identifies the top-performing organizations across the globe based on employee satisfaction, revenue growth and sustainability.

"This accolade is a reflection of the pride that our more than 70,000 global associates have in our purpose, and the contributions they're making to society through improving the delivery and outcomes of patient care," said Shana Neal, executive vice president and chief people officer for BD. "Through our culture, programs and policies, we empower our associates to thrive personally and professionally which fuels the innovation needed to address complex healthcare challenges."

Organized by TIME and Statista, a statistics portal and industry ranking provider, top-performing organizations were identified based on three primary dimensions:

- Employee Satisfaction: Surveys were conducted in more than 50 countries, with data collected from approximately 170,000 participants. The evaluation encompassed direct and indirect recommendations of companies as well as evaluations of employers across the dimensions of image, atmosphere, working conditions, salary and equality by verified employees.
- Revenue Growth: Companies generating a revenue of at least US $100 million in 2023, and demonstrating positive revenue growth from 2021 to 2023, were considered.
- Sustainability: Evaluated based on data among standardized KPIs from Statista's ESG Database and targeted data research.
