

BD Earns Industry Top Honors for Transparency, Resiliency and Partnership

FRANKLIN LAKES, N.J., April 16, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- BD (Becton, Dickinson and Company) (NYSE: BDX), a leading global medical technology company, has been recognized by the Healthcare Industry Resilience Collaborative (HIRC) as the only supplier to receive HIRC's inaugural Member Choice Awards across three categories, Transparency, Resiliency and Partnership. Selected by HIRC members based on real-world customer experience, the awards acknowledge suppliers whose actions strengthen supply chain transparency, resilience, and continuity of patient care.

- Transparency Award: recognizes BD for sharing timely, usable data that enables two-way collaboration and earlier risk detection;
- Resiliency Award: recognizes BD for repeatable, evidence-based operations and governance that protects product level continuity during disruption;
- Partnership Award: recognizes BD for forging durable, value-creating partnerships through collaboration, risk-sharing and reliable execution under pressure.

"This recognition by HIRC members underscores BD's customer-centric approach, and resilient supply chain built on transparency, partnership and trust," said Massimiliano Urbini, EVP and Chief Integrated Supply Chain Officer at BD. "We are proud to be a trusted, long-term partner to our customers by showing up every day to deliver with excellence, safeguard continuity of care and provide the high-quality products patients depend on."

HIRC is a provider-driven, nonprofit consortium focused on advancing patient-centric health care supply chain resiliency through collaboration, standards and best practices. BD is an active HIRC council member and contributes to the development of HIRC standards, badges and guidelines.

BD has received the HIRC Transparency Badge for the last four consecutive years, and the HIRC Resiliency Badge in 2025.
